

News

Facebook Graph Search is Dead. The prior digest provided a short-lived tool that provided some of the same searches we used on the IntelTechniques site, but all ability to search using graph functions have been removed by Facebook. Keeping an eye on SearchBook on Git for updates.

Articles of Interest

- Browser Fingerprinting
 - NixIntel article posted 7/9/19 on browser fingerprinting. A little Opsec for your knowledge base.
- Deblurring Images OSINT (By: Somdev Sangwan)
 - Reversing Pixelized Blur. Techniques of deblurring images that were intentionally pixelated.

Toolbox Additions – OSINT tools to add to your investigative process

- <https://intelx.io/tools>
 - Some great new tools added every week it seems.
 - No real Facebook graph search replacement as nothing is available, however, there is a good collection of new tools on here worth checking out and adding to your favorites.
- <https://start.me/p/gyaOJz/investigator-tools>
 - This is our Start.me page featuring our collection of OSINT Tools
 - Updated nearly daily
- <https://aca3.accela.com/DETROIT/Default.aspx>
 - City of Detroit Search Tools; updated and refreshed after being down for YEARS!
- <https://chrome.google.com/webstore/detail/search-by-image/cnojnbdbhbnkbcieeekonklommdnndci>
 - Google Chrome add-on for conducting multiple image searches at once.
- <https://redditsearch.io/>
 - Reddit needs to be searched individually as results often, and mostly don't show up during a "google" search.
- <http://noxandroidemulator.com/>
 - The best free Android emulator for download to search mobile versions of social media sites and using for your sock puppet accounts